

DukeALERT

THIS IS A TEST. THIS IS A TEST. THIS IS A TEST.

On Wednesday, Oct. 23, at 10 a.m.,
Duke will conduct a test of the DukeALERT notification system.

The test will include the various communication channels that would be used to notify the Duke community in the event of a life-threatening emergency.

For more information, visit:

www.emergency.duke.edu

NOTIFICATION DURING AN EMERGENCY:

E-mail will be sent to all Duke e-mail addresses.

Recorded update at (919) 684-INFO (4636).

Outdoor warning system may broadcast alerts on campus.

Direct contact from emergency personnel and managers.

Web and RSS feed at www.emergency.duke.edu.

Tune in to news media for regular updates.

Text messages: Sign up at www.emergency.duke.edu.

Bulletins and fliers may be posted in buildings.