

Coffee WITH A Cop

“Coffee With a Cop” provides opportunities for faculty and staff who work at Duke University Hospital to meet with Duke Police Chief John H. Dailey and Dr. John Weinerth and chat about security.

This new program is an informal opportunity for Duke Hospital team members to partner with the team from Duke Police to focus on the organizational Value of Safety and to talk about how best to partner to maintain a secure environment.

Event information is below. Registration is requested. Mark your calendars and plan to attend in order to be a part of supporting the safest Duke Experience possible.
